MARRIAGES AT BARKSTON
1561 to 1837

Volume I contains 42 parchment leaves measuring about $11\frac{1}{2}$ by $7\frac{3}{8}$ inches. There is a much-torn fly-leaf at the beginning, none at the end. The binding is limp Parchment lined with paper it is very imperfect & the leaves are rather loose; it needs rebinding. The first page is blank, save scribbling, which disfigures the whole book. Leaf 1 has some pieces cut off the bottom, almost certainly blank. A blank strip is cut off leaf 9. Leaf 16 (1664-5) has an irregular piece cut out carrying the dates of 8 entries. Leaves 19, p 2, & 20, p. 1 are blank. Leaf 41 is badly torn. The writing is generally good & legible, but sometimes much crowded in spite of frequent blank spaces. There is no heading so some earlier leaves may be lost; but their absence is apparent. The Book records Marriages 1561-1650, Baptisms & Burials 1561-1652.

On the fly-leaf is (as far as can be read) "..... in Octob. 14, 1601 Ects. rec' 558... 1559 et 1572 hent repayre ... primo Decembris prox "
(tears make the gaps)

The yeare 1572 is to be found in the Registrie at Lincoln, but thother 2 yers are not far some fortie yers they are all to be found there but not above Jo. Pregon"

The entries for 1572 are in this Register.

In 1597 is this marginal note "Memorandum, That the Bloody Flix (sic) was veray rife this year & Held to be infectious". The burials are about double the average. Vol. II is unfortunately lost with 29 years. Marriages 1651-1678. Vol. III Marked on the cover the 3rd Register Booke of Barkston. 1679" 38 Parchment leaves, (stitched into similar leaves as covers) measuring $12\frac{3}{4}$ by $5\frac{1}{8}$ inches. The back cover is dilapidated. The volume registers Marriages 1679(none) to 1751. Baptisms & Burials 1679-1761. The writing to 1729 is bold, widely spaced, & Easily legible: after that year it is legible but crowded while the Rev. W. Gilbat was rector, it is very bad indeed, & Most difficult to read. There are no entries whatever in 1738. The book is in good condition $3\frac{3}{4}$ inches are cut off the bottom of a page in 1725-6 but almost certainly blank, An irregular piece is cut out of the last leaf, not carrying any writing Vol. IV Marriages 1755-1803, printed forms, parchment leaves in paper covers, in good order.

Vol V Marriages 1804-12, printed forms paper leaves in parchment boards. Also bannes at end. In good cover but the cover is scored with Knife cuts.

Vol VI. Marriages 1813-37, printed forms, paper leaves in parchment boards, good order.

Vol. IV. Baptisms & Burials 1762-91, 13 parchment leaves(one cut out at end) nearly $12\frac{1}{2}$ by $6\frac{3}{4}$ inches, in parchment boards: one paper fly-leaf each end. In excellent condition.

Vol. V Baptisms & Burials 1792-1812. 17 parchment leaves (several cut out at the end. & $9\frac{1}{2}$ are blank) measuring 13 by $7\frac{3}{8}$ inches, in parchment boards with leather back. Excellent condition.

Vol. VI. Baptisms 1813-61 printed forms in parchment boards, in good order.

Vol. VI Burials 1813-1908. A similar book, back loose.

These Abstracts were made by Mr. E.K. Elliott of Leicester, & are printed under his supervision with the permission of the Rev. E. M. Clements. the Rector.

MARRIAGES

HOUGHAM, LINCOLNSHIRE, ENGLAND

Typed by

MARRIAGES AT HOUGHAM, LINCOLNSHIRE, ENGLAND

1561 - 1837

Volume I, Consists of 25 parchment leaves measuring $18 \frac{5}{8}$ by $5 \frac{1}{4}$ to $7 \frac{7}{8}$ inches, varying greatly. The book is in a deplorable state; it has no covers, & is stained, torn, dirty, nibbled by mice & dogeared! The narrow leaves are unusually long, and seem to have been rolled up, this; coupled with the clumsy way in which they are sewn together, has resulted in stiff, deep creases which much increases the difficulty of reading the entries involved. One or more leaves is wore, probably, lost at the beginning. The first leaf has $3 \frac{1}{2}$ inches torn off the top, and is otherwise badly mutilated, but all entries not actually injured can be read; indeed, thanks to the clear though minute script the record is wonderfully legible in general. Leaf 14. p. 2. has several entries at foot blotted out. Leaves 15 & 16 are very dirty, and have 1 inch or more, apparently, cut off at bottom, probably not carrying entries. Leaf 16 has about $3 \frac{1}{2}$ inches cut off the top, probably carrying entries. Leaf 17, p.1. contains only the Certificate of the 'reading in' as rector of Dr. Allington in 1662. 5 or 6 inches are cut off at bottom, probably blank, as is p. 2. Half of Leaf 22 is cut away, it may have carried some entries in 1678-9. The last two leaves are badly mutilated, & some entries are defective. Four or more leaves have been cut off at the end, one of these probably carried the entries, in 1697-8, now lost. A leaf carrying all classes of entries in 1699 to 1703 is now stitched together with what is called 'Volume II'; but may have belonged to Volume I; it is the same length but wider. The book urgently calls for repair and binding & 'Volume II' should be included with it.

'Volume II' has only 6 leaves of parchment without any cover, measuring 18 by $6 \frac{3}{4}$ inches, sewn together in the most tiresome disorder; to unravel its contents is a work of much time & im-patience. Each class is headed:—"A Register of the several persons Married (or Buried or Baptised) in the Town & Parish of Hougham beginning in the year 1705" (at that year.)

To follow out the Marriages in 1699 to 1723. Holding the 'book' so that Burials in 1713 face you; turn 5 leaves, leaf 6, both sides, contains all classes of entries in 1699-1703. Reverse the book, turn 2 leaves, & Marriages in 1705-21 appear, all together. Turn forward 2 leaves & find Marriages in 1721-23. Baptisms, 1699 to 1727. For 1699-1703, Leaf 6. Leaf 4. p. 1. for 1705-11. Reverse the book, turn 1 leaf & find baptisms in 1712-16. Turn forward 4 leaves, & find baptisms in 1717-21. Reverse book, turn 1 leaf & find baptisms in 1722-27. Burials 1699-1727. For 1699-1703 on leaf 6. Reverse the book, turn 3 leaves & find burials in 1705-12. Reverse the book, p 1. holds burials 1713-19. Turn 4 leaves & find burials in 1720-27. Rebinding might save all this trouble. The writing is good & very legible, generally; condition is far better than Vol.I.

Volume III. 9 parchment leaves measuring $14 \frac{7}{8}$ by nearly $7 \frac{1}{4}$ inches; 2 similar leaves form covers, all very loosely stitched together, it records Marriages in 1729-53; Baptisms & Burials in 1728-66. The entries (by pages) are again & again reversed on the tiresome plan of Vol. II; entries are classified throughout. The parchment is fairly clean & in good order, & the writing is good and legible throughout.

Volume IV. Marriages in 1756-18. A small, square book, printed forms, paper leaves, bound in leather & in excellent condition.

Volume IV. Baptisms in 1766-1813. Burials in 1766-1812. Parchment leaves bound in leather, several leaves at the end are blank. Good condition.

Volume V. Marriages 1813-1838 Printed forms, leaves in parchment board in excellent condition.

Volume V. Baptisms in 1813-89, printed forms, parchment boards, condition excellent.

Volume V. Burials 1813-1913, printed forms paper leaves parchment boards

These abstracts have been made by Mr. E. K. Elliott of Leicester, & are printed under his supervision with the consent of the Rev. Algernon C. E. Thorold, the rector.

MARRIAGES at MARSTON
1707-1838

91

Volume I is alleged to be "lost" but there is some hope it may yet be found.

Volume II consists of 15 parchment leaves $18\frac{1}{4}$ by $6\frac{1}{8}$ inches, in limp parchment covers, the back one has a corner torn out. It records Marriages 1707-53. Baptisms 1707-60. Burials 1707-59.

The Marriages begin on leaf 13 & are written only on out side of the leaves alternately & reversed, with the Baptisms & Burials. After 1739 (the last leaf) turn back 13 leaves; after 1752 turn forward 1 leaf for Marriages in 1753. The book is fairly clean & in good order. The writing is generally good and legible, occasionally greasy parchment (not 'pounced') did not take the ink well.

Vol. III Marriages 1754-90. Ruled parchment leaves, bound in tooled leather & in excellent condition. Pages 21-30 contain certificates of publication of Banns, but at foot of p. 30 is a Marriage in 1774, out of order; & Marriages continue on pages 31, 32-the last.

Vol. IV Marriages 1791-1808. Parchment leaves in parchment boards. Condition excellent.

Vol. V Marriages 1809-21, printed forms, parchment leaves in parchment boards Condition excellent.

Vol. VI Marriages 1815-38, printed forms, paper leaves. Good condition. This duplicates Vol. V in 1815-21.

Vol. III Baptisms & Burials 1716-1813. A very long narrow book of parchment leaves in rough leather binding. In 1770 & 1776 a strip of parchment is cut out of the middle of the page carrying one or more entries on both sides. There are other knife-cuts & tears, otherwise the book is in good condition & very legible.

Vol. IV Baptisms 1813-74. paper leaves, leather binding, loose in cover, otherwise in good condition.

Vol. IV Burials, 1813 & Current; paper leaves in parchment boards, in good condition.

Vol. I.

"A Register of the severall Persons baptised in Marston, beginning in the year 1707 "

The first entry is: Martha Anna, the daughter of William Hickson baptized June 8

The Reverse the book & at the other end under a similar heading, Burials are registered. Turn 12 leaves and find:

"A Register of the severall persons married in Marston beginning in the year 1707.
